It's ok. Ill explain the situation on here

I was hacked last week by someone in asia, and they stole thousands of dollars from me. Luckly I was able to get it all back, but

I have someone in my life too.
I'm in an 8 year relationship .
It's not like that. I'm just trying to be friendly. I like having friends from all over the place you know? It's good to make connections.

Why are you opposed to make friends? 50% of the world is male lol. In the real world, the workforce, etc you'll have lots of mail coworkers and stuff.

I just think we could be friends, and I could be a good resource for you. Like hell I would love to meet your boo if he doesn't want you having any. But if you don't want to it's all good, I understand

You know, I wish we would talk more than just when something's wrong with one of our phones (btw my iCloud is STILL fucked up but that's another story). I'm a pretty great guy. I'm going to be a Doctor, I'm pretty much the #1 leader in this community, I'm funny, I've dealt with a lot of similar situations to what you're going through. I try to help you when you need it. I might not be a dime like you are but I'm pretty handsome (or so ppl say at least). I could change your life. Just looking to be friends and wish you would give me more of a chance.

I understand. I had deleted your number until I got it in this investigation report. I'm going to have to file a lawsuit with the 36th district court for damages. I will not contact you again, but you may hear from my lawyer if this is not resolved.
